2 SCOPE

Residential and Support at Home

3 PRINCIPLES FOR THE COLLECTION OF CLIENT INFORMATION

Mayflower is committed to the principles outlined in the Privacy Act 1988 and the Privacy Amendment (Enhancing Privacy Protection) Act 2012¹. We have in place procedures that ensure compliance with the legislation including the protection of sensitive information including health information. We use the Office of the Australian Information Commission (OAIC) documents - Protecting Customer's Personal Information² and the Guide to Health Privacy³, as guides to our privacy plan and processes.

4 PRIVACY PLAN

The way we ensure the privacy and confidentiality of clients is detailed in our Privacy Plan below. The elements of our Privacy Plan include:

4.1 ACCOUNTABILITY

- We have clear lines of accountability for privacy management. The Board has approved the Privacy Plan and has delegated day-to-day responsibility to the CEO. The CEO is directly responsible for privacy and for reporting to the Board on any issues including breaches. Senior Management are responsible for ensuring our policies, processes and procedures are implemented and followed and report any issues to the CEO. Workers with any privacy issues or queries can approach their immediate Supervisor or the relevant Manager.

4.2 TRAINING

- Management, workers (including volunteers) are provided with annual training and information as required, including periodic reviews of the information on the rights of clients to privacy and confidentiality and the processes to support this. Training is provided to workers as needed and at orientation. The OAIC Guide to Health Privacy is available to all workers and Board members and is utilised as a reference for Senior Management in the management of privacy.⁴

4.3 INFORMATION COLLECTION

- We only collect information about clients that is relevant to the provision of their support, and we explain why we collect the information and what we use it for. Information collected can include personal details, contact details, family/ supporter⁵ details, medical history, health care provider details, financial information, assessments, clinical notes, medications, Medicare/healthcare fund details, specialist reports, test results and referral information
- We also ensure a three-point identification check is conducted for all clients when contacting them by telephone (Support at Home) or when providing care and services. (See Care Records Documentation/ Three-Point Client Identification)
- We take steps to correct information where appropriate and regularly review client information with the client or their registered supporters/ substitute decision maker to ensure it is accurate and up to date
- Clients can ask to see the information that we keep about them and are supported to access this information (See below Clients Right to Access Information) subject to the Grounds for Refusing Access⁶ specified in the Privacy Act 1988.

4.4 INFORMATION PROVISION

- The Client Information Pack outlines our approach to maintaining privacy and confidentiality of client information. Clients are provided with a copy of the Client Information Pack on commencing with Mayflower, and whenever the information substantially changes. The information in the Client Information Pack including our Privacy Policy is explained to clients during service commencement and when seeking consent
- Clients are supported by us should they have a complaint or dispute regarding our Privacy Policy or the management of their personal information (See Information Management).

4.5 INFORMATION SHARING

- All information relating to clients is confidential and is not disclosed to any other person or organisation without the client's consent except in cases of serious threat to the client where they are not able to consent⁷
- Except with the written consent of the person, personal information is not disclosed to any other person other than:
 - for a purpose connected with the provision of aged care to the client by us or
 - for a purpose connected with the provision of aged care to the client by another provider or
 - for a purpose for which the personal information was given by or on behalf of the client or
 - for the purpose of complying with an obligation under the Aged Care Act 2024, the Aged Care (Consequential and Transitional Provisions) Act 2024 or any of the Aged Care Principles⁸
- The provision of information to people outside the service is authorised by the relevant Manager
- We do not discuss clients or their support with people not directly involved in supporting them.

4.6 ENSURING PRIVATE ENVIRONMENTS

- Reviews are always conducted in private with the client and the relevant team member unless the client consents to a supporter being present
- During client assessments and reviews the relevant team member asks the client about any privacy requirements they have such as their preference for a male or female Support Worker. These are noted on their assessment form and on the support plan
- Any discussions between workers about clients are held in a private space
- Any references to individual clients in meeting minutes refer to the client by initials only or another unique identifier, such as their client number.

4.7 RECORDS MANAGEMENT

- Client files are stored in secured filing cabinets and securely archived. Electronic information is securely stored and securely backed up daily (See Information Management)
- We confidentially archive then destroy any personal information held about our clients when it is no longer necessary to provide support (See Information Management/ Archiving Client Records)
- We have a comprehensive data breach response plan to be implemented in the event of a data breach (See Information Technology and Cyber Security)

⁸ Australian Government Federal Register of Legislation Aged Care Act 2024 Part 3—Aged care rights and principles Division 2- Aged care principles 25 Statement of Principles p 53

- Our Privacy Plan, policies, processes and procedures are reviewed and updated through our regulatory compliance and continuous improvement processes including the review of Policies and Procedures over a three-year period (minimum) (and when requirements change) and ongoing audits of all processes (See Regulatory Compliance and Continuous Improvement).

5 CONFIDENTIALITY OF COMPLAINTS AND DISPUTES

As far as possible, the fact that a client has lodged a complaint and the details of that complaint, are kept confidential amongst workers directly concerned with its resolution. Similarly, information on disputes between a client and a worker or a client and a carer is kept confidential.

Information provided in a complaint or feedback is otherwise only disclosed if required by law or if the disclosure is otherwise appropriate in the circumstances⁹. The client's permission is obtained prior to any information being given to other parties whom it may be desirable to involve in the resolution of the complaint or dispute.

Individuals may also raise concerns or make disclosures under whistleblower protections where even stricter confidentiality provisions apply (See Whistleblowers).
